Directors' Message

Hello and welcome to the TresVista family!

We believe that each individual is a critical part of the team and has the potential to make TresVista a premier Financial Services Firm. Our team of Financial Services and Staff are true entrepreneurs, passionate about their contribution to TresVista and take complete ownership and responsibility for the direction the Company heads. We truly believe that each and every Person in the TresVista family is able to add value and contribute in their unique way to building our strong culture of integrity and excellence.

The TresVista culture of perfection is top down and there is a conscious effort to ensure that the Company culture is conserved and enhanced where possible. At TresVista, we recognize hard work, effort and sincerity displayed by the team. We believe in constantly challenging the individuals and motivating them to press ahead. When an individual, or we as a team, deviate from our desired standards, the responsibility is on all of us to get back on track and make this a Company we are proud to be a part of.

We still believe we are a small Company and as such there are no cracks to slip through. TresVista is continuously mentoring and cultivating team players who understand the importance of relationships. For better or worse, each individual's experience is shaped by the fact that we expect excellence at every step of the way. When we 'expect' excellence, it means we 'believe' the team is capable of it.

Someone once told us that what we ask of our team is like 'asking an Olympic long jumper to also be an Olympic marathon runner – it's not possible except for extraordinary people.' We responded in agreement – we aspire to be extraordinary. If you feel frustrated at times, if you experience 'failure' for the first time in a meaningful way, we hope at some point in the future, you can reflect on how much you have 'learned', and be proud of all you have accomplished and be excited by all you will accomplish. Over time, we hope you will see the positive changes in yourself.

We have tried to do our part in helping the development of each individual. The team's development will always be our responsibility and priority, but we believe that the team has adopted a culture of action and self-motivation which will allow one to achieve even more.

When we look at the quality of our team, our Clients, and our prospects, we are more excited than ever for the future of TresVista. We look forward to succeeding together!

 - However, if an Employee has to take a leave during the flexwork period due to medical or unforeseen emergencies, the original flexwork period is split into vacation/Personal Days and flexwork, accordingly
 - The balance flexwork days from the original flexwork period can be utilized separately in one stretch in the next flexwork request, but cannot be split any further
 - E.g. In a five (5) day flexwork request, an Employee was unwell and took two (2) days of leaves. The five (5) days are then split as three (3) days of flexwork and two (2) days of leave
 - The remaining seven (7) days can be taken as one (1) flexwork request

- Managers should be mindful when approving these requests and applications not meeting the defined criteria should be rejected
- Employees must ensure that their in-office presence at the end of the half-yearly period is at least 60% of their net-working days
 - Net-working days include flexwork, hybrid deviations (if any), field days, etc. and exclude all types of leaves and Firmwide Holidays (Refer to section 3.2 of this handbook)

- All requests for flexwork must be applied for and approved on the system within the monthly leave/attendance timeline defined by the Corporate Finance Department
- Flexwork cannot be carried forward or encashed and any unused days lapse at the end of the annual Leave Cycle
- Employees can club this benefit with their leaves, at Manager's discretion. However, Employees cannot be away from office that they are based out of, for more than consecutive 10 working days, including availing vacation days, personal days, flexwork, working from another office location and/or work from home days as per the hybrid guidelines, in isolation or in combination
 - The above is calculated by counting the days in between the employee's last biometric entry (before being away from office) to the next biometric (after they rejoin the office)
 - Any non-adherence to this policy shall lead to Disciplinary Action which may include but not be limited to policy reminder, re-training, impact on review rating, issuance of warning letter, or termination
- For the days that Employees avail of flexwork, they are mandatorily required to clock-in on DarwinBox
 - Any miss in clocking-in leads to a direct impact on the utilization calculation
- The number of days an Employee works from the office in a week are pro-rated to the flexwork availed in that week
 - Detailed guidelines on the hybrid model can be referred to in section 3.2 of this handbook
- Flexwork cannot be availed of during the below-mentioned days and Employees are expected to be present in the office on these days:
 - TresVista Day (3rd week of November)

- If the Manager requires an Employee to cancel or reschedule a vacation that has already been approved (not applicable for auto-approved leaves), any expenses that may be incurred in cancelling or rescheduling, that are not covered by the Employee's travel insurance, are reimbursed. This reimbursement is expensed to the respective department budget on producing relevant receipts. A vacation can be cancelled only in the most urgent situations
- Exceeding Vacation Days balance incurs a loss of pay and is deducted from that month's salary. It also leads to an additional salary deduction as explained under the sub-section 'Excess Leave Utilization - Consequences'
 - At the point of exit, an Employee is required to repay TresVista for any Vacation Days taken in excess of the Employee's leave entitlement calculated on a pro rata basis till the Last Working Day, and it is adjusted with their full and final settlement
- During Notice Period, Vacation Days are accrued but cannot be utilized. However, at the point of exit, up to ten (10) unused Vacation Days calculated on a pro rata basis till the Last Working Day, can be encashed to the Employee as a part of the full and final settlement
- If Employees miss marking their leaves within the monthly timeline defined by the Corporate Finance Department, these days are auto-deducted from their Vacation Days balance. In the absence of sufficient Vacation Days balance, these days are marked as unpaid leaves. The process in this regard is defined below:
 - Employees are eligible to receive 75% of their salary for these days in the next salary cycle subject to Manager approval, however, a standard 25% deduction for each day, is applicable

- To receive this amount Employees must share Manager approval with the Corporate Finance Department within the monthly attendance/leaves timeline and also mark this day from their Personal Day balance, as applicable
- If Employees do not have any Leave Balance (vacation/Personal Days), this day is treated as an unpaid leave and the necessary salary/monetary deductions apply, as applicable

Procedure for Application

- In order to avail of a Vacation Day, an Employee must apply for it under 'Vacation Days' on DarwinBox
- When a leave is requested on the system, it should include all days like weekends and/or firmwide holidays if they fall under the duration of the vacation

The Ethics Committee investigates the situation through conversations with the Manager and the Employee, and finalizes the status of the application per the process mentioned under the section 2.7 of this handbook

 - In case the Manager disagrees with the auto-approved leaves, the Manager has the option to reject these leaves on the system keeping the Employee informed of the same

- The deduction, as a percentage, is applicable on the average monthly gross salary earned during the Leave Cycle and is deducted from January month's payroll, as per the deduction matrix mentioned in the Annexure
 - Average monthly gross salary is calculated by dividing the total salary earned in a Leave Cycle by twelve (12) months
 - If an Employee exits the Company before December, then the deduction is be made from their full and final settlement
- In instances where an Employee has exceeded their leaves in a given Leave Cycle due to personal reasons (e.g., wedding, death of immediate family, or any unforeseen emergency) and kept their Manager informed, the deduction may get waived subject to approval of the Exceptions Committee (exceptions@tresvista.com)

Performance Appraisal

6. Performance Appraisal

“A Company’s Employees are its greatest asset and your people are your Product.”

Richard Branson

In keeping with this mantra, TresVista is committed toward the success of its Employees and to this end, aims to provide a holistic review process based on constant performance monitoring and regular, objective feedback.

6.1 Overview

Everyone values both honest criticism as well as the praise that is due for their effort. The review process at TresVista is 360o, where an Employee is given feedback from multiple sources including peers, seniors, juniors, Manager and themselves. All Employees have their own learning curve, and must accept feedback in a constructive way.

Eligibility

An Employee is eligible to write and receive reviews if:

- Their date of joining is as follows (For first mid-year review):
 - June Review Period: On or before March 15
 - December Review Period: On or before September 15
- They are not serving notice

Timelines

Performance reviews are conducted semi-annually at TresVista. An Employee will get a mid-year review and a year-end review in an Annual Review Period.

6.2 Objectives

The aim of performance appraisals is to:

- Encapsulate the Reviewee’s performance over the review period
- Provide constructive criticism on areas of development
- Provide a basis for coaching to improve Employee performance
- Assist in setting goals for Employee development
- Assist in making systematic judgments
- Provide feedback to the Reviewee from multiple sources
- Assist in realigning the culture of a team and/or the Company
- Provide the Company with performance measures to be used in making Promotion and compensation decisions

6.3 Points of Evaluation

Parameters

A performance review assesses the Reviewees’ ability to achieve results across various parameters. The principal categories include:

- Business Results
- Strategic Thinking
- Personal Effectiveness

The ‘Self-Appraisal Form’ will also have a section on ‘Areas of Interest for Development and Suggestions for Improving Your Experience at TresVista’ and a tabular summary of the projects worked on during the review period.

Ratings

Performance will be rated on a scale of 1 to 5 with the latter demonstrating the highest level of performance.

Rating	Meaning	Description
NA	Not Applicable	Not tested
1	Major Improvement Required	Lack of effort, knowledge, and ability
2	Some Improvement Required	Obvious and repeated mistakes, but shows effort/sincerity

3	Consistent Average Performance	Meets expectations
4	Often Exceeds Performance Expectations	Exceeds expectations
5	Consistently Exceeds Performance Expectations	Displays ability to achieve results at the next level

It should be noted that:

- The individual ratings depend on the perspective of the Reviewer, and hence, any serious accreditation/allegation by self or peer Reviewer as evidenced by the extreme ratings, has to be backed by credible examples. If one has no opinion on a particular sub-category, rating “NA” is the best option. The Manager comments will not be based on singular incidents or examples
- The category ratings on the review are meant to disclose where the Person stands on the date of the review, whereas an overall rating for the review period describes the Reviewee’s performance over that entire review period
- The expected level of performance is benchmarked against the expectation of the specific year of the title/role
- The overall rating in the year-end review will be a function of the full year’s performance and determines performance bonus
- In order to achieve an overall rating of 5, one has to get a rating of 4 and 5 in all categories. Likewise, an overall rating of 1 means, that an Employee would have got a rating of 1 or 2 in most categories

6.4 Process

The review process is important for each Employee and a thorough, accurate, and sincere effort is deserved in recognition of the Reviewee’s efforts. The HR Department will notify all eligible Employees regarding the initiation of the review process, and communicate important dates.

Solicitation

The solicitation period is the time during which the Reviewee sends requests to all those Employees who they have worked with. A Reviewee is expected to solicit at least two other Employees in order for the Manager to get holistic feedback about an Employee’s performance. Employees may accept or reject solicitation requests.

Writing Reviews

An Employee has to write and submit the self and peer reviews within the given deadlines. Reviews have to be written and submitted on Review Portal. For reference, an Employee can also access his previous reviews, if any, under ‘My Review Reports’. During this period, Review Portal can be accessed from outside the office.

Employees are encouraged to write an unsolicited review, positive or negative, for any Reviewee for whom they feel they have comments that would add value to the review process. The identity of unsolicited Reviewers is not known to the Reviewee.

An Employee is responsible to ensure that Employees who have accepted their solicitation request, submit reviews in a timely manner. Once the process is closed, no submissions will be accepted on Review Portal. It will be up to the Manager whether they want to consider any review provided to them outside of Review Portal.

Review with Manager

The Manager consolidates all the peer comments and evaluates the Reviewee themselves. The 'Peer Comments' section includes comments from all Reviewers except those of the Manager. Peer comments are provided to the Reviewee without revealing the identification of the specific Reviewer. A review document is handed out to the Reviewee, after which the Manager or HR has a one on one conversation with them. Managers should avoid taking any Holidays during this time.

Outcome

The performance review may result into the following:

- Probation or Confirmation: An Employee shall be kept under Probation, for the period specified in their Company issued Offer Letter, subsequent to which they will either be confirmed or their Probation period will be extended for a duration of two months, at Manager's discretion. Confirmed Employees will receive relevant communication to this effect
- Promotion: An Employee may receive a Promotion during a mid-year or year-end review. The Promotion may take effect immediately or following the completion of the next review period as stated in their Promotion Offer
